Building fine custom cabinetry is an art form that is crafted with great pride in the Pennsylvania Dutch Country of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. For sixty years the artisans at Rutt HandCrafted Cabinetry have been world-renowned as the leader for crafting cabinetry that is both treasured and timeless.

The good people of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania also appreciate quality products that are authentic and provide a good value with an excellent return on their investment. With these characteristics in mind, quality, authenticity, value, and return on investment, the craftspeople of Rutt are pleased to present the Rutt Regency Collection.

Whether your personal style is traditional, transitional, or modern/contemporary the Rutt Regency Collection will allow you to obtain cabinetry that fits your individual taste.

Rutt Regency is created from a tradition of excellence to meet your lifestyle.

A light illuminates the interior of your refrigerator when you open it, right? So why shouldn't the same occur when you open a cabinet door or drawer in your kitchen? Interior cabinet lighting available from Rutt Regency does just that; giving you a clear view of all the typical items stored inside your kitchen cabinetry. Using the latest in LED technology, the integrated lighting system will instantly blanket the interior of a cabinet with light when a door or drawer is opened.
